WHO SHOULD ATTEND A CLW?

The CLW is for all who want to know more about Cursillo. All are welcome, lay or ordained. Those who have any leadership role should certainly attend before, or as soon as possible after taking office.

WHAT IS INCLUDED?

An opportunity for sharing in worship & fellowship, hearing talks on the following and discussing their content with people from other diocesan / provincial movements:

The Purpose of Cursillo including: Cursillo and the fundamentals of Christian Living, The Church and the place of the movement

Forming a Movement including: The Fourth Day First, The Groups – Reunion and Ultreya, Spiritual Direction

Making the Movement Work including: The Servant Community, The Pre-Cursillo, Authentic Cursillo, The Cursillo Leader

Looking Ahead: Taking the information and ideas back to the diocese and sharing them with the leaders there.

WHO LEADS A CLW?

Those who make up the leadership of the presenting team for a CLW have themselves already attended a CLW and are leaders from within the British Anglican Cursillo movement. Four people make up the team which includes a Spiritual Director.

CLWs run from 5.30p.m. on the Friday evening to around 2pm on Sunday. The full cost of the weekend is £200 which includes board and room. A £60 per person non-returnable deposit is required on booking. The balance is due one month before the weekend. It is recommended that private holiday insurance is obtained. Please send application forms to CLW Administrator – contact details above.

Bookings should be made no less than 2 months before the weekend and places are allocated on a first come first served basis. Last minute places are sometimes available – contact Angela Smith to enquire – details above. Application forms can be downloaded from the BACC website.

These two days are a lifting up of the ideals of the Cursillo method. A CLW can be an inspiring and spiritual experience but does not attempt to repeat the Cursillo Weekend experience.
